ORDER

Subject: Appeal made by Shri Sai Muni Meduru, Andhra Pradesh under Section 19(1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 – reg.

Facts of the Case:

Shri Sai Muni Meduru, Andhra Pradesh, vide application dated 19.05.2025, has made an appeal under Section 19(1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 against the reply submitted by ACPIO, EIA-Chennai vide reply dated 08.05.2025 in response to RTI application dated 11.04.2025. Shri Sai Muni Meduru, vide RTI application dated 11.04.2025, had sought the information regarding record based evidences of email conversation between EIA-Chennai H.O. and EIA-Chennai Sub Office-Nellore prior and after the discontinuation of services on 17.03.2025. ACPIO, EIA-Chennai, vide reply dated 08.05.2025, had informed that the information cannot be disclosed as per rule 8(1)(j) of the Act.

In response to the reply of ACPIO, EIA-Chennai, the appellant has raised an appeal under Section 19(1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 vide application dated 19.05.2025. The appellant in his appeal has stated that the ACPIO, EIA-Chennai has provided false & misleading information and requested to provide appropriate orders to the ACPIO, EIA-Chennai to provide the information as per his RTI application.

Orders:

The Appellate authority has gone through all the relevant documents such as RTI Application dated 11.04.2025 submitted by Shri Sai Muni Meduru, the reply furnished by the ACPIO, EIA-Chennai vide reply dated 08.05.2025 and the instant appeal dated 19.05.2025.

It is a case in which the RTI appellant used to serve as an outsourced manpower through a 3rd party vendor in EIA-Chennai, Sub Office-Nellore. The purpose of the information sought in the instant RTI Application is to find out the identity of the officer who had taken favourable and one who had taken unfavourable view of the conduct of such worker in recording the e-mail exchanges. The RTI Appellant knows that it is these communications which eventually lead to decisions for, or against, him. He wants to gain access to the identities of those communications to pursue his agendas about or against the officer recording the communications against him. There is every likelihood that when such information is disclosed to the person in respect of whom such comments were made, brought retribution to the officer in the shape of a court proceeding, a notice for damages and so on. Further, disclosure of information may result in resorting to intimidation by the Appellant against the Officer. Naturally, no officer recording the communication through e-mail would like his identity to be disclosed lest he became the victim himself later at the hands of RTI Appellant. So Confidentiality of such e-mail exchanges is an entirely wholesome principle conducive to good governance thereby protecting such officers from intimidation etc. Hence, the information sought under the RTI Act is exempted under section 8(1)(g).

The reply of ACPIO, EIA-Chennai vide reply dated 08.05.2025 stands revised to the above extent.

In case the appellant intend to prefer an appeal, as per Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, the appellant may do so to Chief Information Commission, CIC Bhawan, Baba Gangnath Marg, Munirka, New Delhi - 110067, within 90 days of the receipt of this letter.
